Moot Court Proposition:

Rama Murthy Appellant/Defendant

Vs.

S. Chidambaram Respondent/Plaintiff

The appeal is preferred to the Principal District Court, Madurai, against the decree dated 30.11.2005 passed in O.S.No.263 of 2004 on the file of the II Additional Subordinate Judge, Madurai. The defendant is the appellant. The suit is filed for specific performance of contract.

The facts of the case are as follows:

Defendant is the owner of land Block No. 208 and Block No. 209 respectively and measuring Area H. 0.60 R and H. 0.40 R of Village Nagaon in Madurai and he agreed to sell the property to the plaintiff and entered into a sale agreement on 27.11.2000 for the sale of the property. The sale consideration was fixed at Rs.1, 35,000/- and an advance amount of Rs.1 lakh was paid. The balance amount of Rs.35, 000/- was to be payable within a year and get the sale executed. At the request of the defendants on 10.11.2001, the time was extended by 6 months and the same was endorsed in the sale agreement. The plaintiff was ready and willing to pay the balance and get the sale deed executed.. In the mean time, the plaintiff came to know that the defendants are trying to alienate the property to the third party and therefore, she issued a notice dated 29.02.2004 calling upon the defendants to perform their part of contract. On receipt of the notice the defendants sent a reply dated 12.04.2004 with untenable allegations. The defendants have alleged that the plaintiff, not able to pay the balance, had received back the advance paid to the tune of Rs.70, 000/- and they are ready to pay back the balance amount of Rs.30,000/- and such allegations are not true. Therefore, a suit is filed for specific performance of contract.

The suit was resisted by the defendants. The execution of the sale agreement was admitted by the defendants. But it was denied that the time was extended at the request of the defendants. It is contended that the plaintiff was not in a position to perform her part of the contract and received back Rs.50,000/- on 29.04.2001 and another sum of Rs.20,000/- on 03.02.2002. The balance is payable Rs.30,000/- and since the agreement of sale is cancelled the plaintiff is also not entitled for the balance amount of Rs.30,000/-.

Based on the above averments, the learned II Additional Sub Judge, Madurai, framed issues and found that the plaintiff was ready and willing to perform her part of contract and the time is not essence to perform the contract and the defendants' allegation that out of 1 lakh of advance amount, Rs.70,000/- was paid back on two occasions to the plaintiff is not true and therefore, had decreed the suit.

Aggrieved by which, the defendants have preferred an appeal before the District Court, Madurai. Since the defendants had not produced any documents to show that the plaintiff had received the said amounts, now before the First Appellate court an attempt has been made to introduce two stamped receipts alleged to have been executed by the plaintiffs. . The defendants have sent a reply stating that there is a breach of contract by the plaintiff and on 10.11.2001, the plaintiff had received back Rs.50, 000/- and on 03.02.2002 received a sum of Rs.20,000/- and therefore, the Plaintiff is entitled for only Rs.30, 000/- and she has lost the right under the said contract and the same defence was taken in the suit also.

Legal issues:

- 1. Jurisdiction of the court
- 2. Whether time was essence to perform the contract
- 3. Whether suit was barred by limitation
- 4. Can the additional documents be filed before the First appellate court?
- 5. Whether plaintiff was entitled to relief of specific performance of contract
