Faculty of Management

The Faculty of Management, Jagannath University since its inception in 2008, nurtures the skills of its students through its highly demanding professional courses of MBA & BBA. It helps them shape into professionals and attempts to strike an innovative balance between theory and practice of management concepts by conducting various management activities throughout the course. It creates individuals who strive for a balanced personal and professional life, are successes in their fields and are magnets for people attracted to excellence.

The Faculty of Management focuses on management education more than just business management. The commitment is thought leadership with a deep understanding of business.

Biz Mage at a Glance

Continuing with our tradition of increased interaction with Corporate and building awareness among budding managers, Faculty of Management, JaganNath University organises a seminar on contemporary issues.

The Biz Mage17', 4th National Seminar is organised on the theme Contemporary Management Practices: Leadership in Times of Complexity and Change aims at understanding and enabling environment for reflective observation and application of recent developments in management.

- Session I: Changing Dynamics of Leadership
- Developing New Capabilities
 - Emotional Intelligence
 - Effective Leadership Skills
 - Zero-and low-cost ways to motivate the people
 - Spirituality-Skill Paradigm for Leadership
 - Leading with Integrity

Keeping in view the diverse set of responsibilities at different levels of management and leadership that meet the needs of the enterprise and its stakeholders while protecting, sustaining and enhancing the human and other resources that will be needed in the future, the learning will be inter-disciplinary in nature. The seminar is a timely endeavor to focus on the skill set and strategies required to deal globally for both current and aspiring leaders and ready them to test their mettle in the future. At the same time, leaders need to ready themselves for the many unanticipated challenges in present times and in future; this seminar attempts to explore how best to achieve that as well.

The two sessions of the seminar would be :

Session II: Challenges for Leadership in a Global Economy

- Crafting Cultures of Innovation

About the Theme

With the rapidly changing scenario a paradigm shift in the positions of the leaders is required as both organization and people need to know that they are in good, capable hands. The traditional hierarchical, bureaucratic, and insulated organizational models no longer work in this new business era. Quality improvement, evidence-based practice, and systems thinking are essential to maintaining one's competitive edge.

Inaugural Session

The seminar was inaugurated by Prof. Dr. V.K. Agarwal, Vice Chancellor, Jagannath University, Jaipur. Dr. Vaishali Shram, Dean, Faculty of Management gave the welcome address and welcomed all the delegates. In her welcome address she briefed about the University and its achievement. She welcomed all the distinguished guests who spared there time to enrich the gathering through their experience and expertise.

The Key Note address was delivered by Dr. Amit Jain, Chairman, ISTD, Jaipur Chapter.

Dr. Amit Jain as keynote speaker rightly pointed out that todays business leader faces a certain degree of uncertainty, risk, and complexity. A leader needs to fulfill his commitment in times of complexities and change. In the times of extreme market volatility and innovations; sustainability has become a major business issue. Moreover the millennial generation is entering the workforce and bringing a new set of values and priorities. He said that a leader is great only when he helps others in his group to become great.

Prof. Dr. V.K. Agarwal, Vice Chancellor, Jagannath University, in his Presidential Address said that the life of a modern day leader is not easy. The requirements of leadership also change over time. Corporate cultures, work force demographics, generational expectations and the very nature of work are all changing rapidly, so it should come as no surprise that the characteristics of successful leaders also evolve.

The Distinguished guest were presented memento as a token of gratitude for their gracious presence. Vote of Thanks for the session was delivered by Prof. Kapil Khattar.

Compiled Suggestions of Participants

1. Organise such events frequently
2. Seminar must also provide opportunity to selected participants to speak on such forums which will have catalytic effect on students.
3. Seminar sessions were good and can be made more interactive.
4. As it was a whole day program so more comfortable sitting arrangement should be there.
5. Infrastructure and facilities can be improved.
6. Some participants have suggested speakers to deliver in mixed language.
7. Some have also suggested reducing the duration of the seminar.
