He talked about his book which looks at various perspective related to society, organizations and individuals with which managers in the new age have to contend. Accordingly, the foundations of the management in new age are based on Holistic Development and Management (HDM), Human Quality Development (HQD) and Total Quality of Mind (TQM). He said that it is important the interlinks are established between management thought, social discourse and spiritual concerns that constitute three foundational themes of the book. Through an integration of market, society and self, it articulates the vision of sacro-civic society and sacro-civic nations rooted in harmony paradigm that aims at a new balance between utilitarian, ecotarian and ethicotarian philosophies of life. He suggested the need for a paradigm shift from, 'survival of the fittest to eliminate the rest' to 'arrival of the best to lead the rest'.
