Jaipur celebrates National Youth Day, talk on life skills organised

 Dr. Lalit Kishore

"To cultivate patience among youth, we need to understand 'haste makes waste'. The quickness and hurry leads to delay most of the time with the exception of getting up early in the morning which is necessary and sufficient to enhance working time for oneself," said Professor MM Goel Vice Chancellor Jagannath University on the occasion of 'National Youth Day' to mark 156th birth anniversary of Vivekananda here on Saturday. He was delivering a special lecture on the topic 'Life Skills for Empowerment of Youth'.

Professor Goel appealed the youth to be motivated for proper utilization of time by saying that an hour spent in worthwhile actions there can be a gain of 1000 times and a waste of one hour in useless actions there is a loss of 1000 times.

Professor Goel said that spiritual quotient (SQ) beyond religions is there which can unify mankind as needed in the present era of globalization.

Life is a preparation for eternal life otherwise life remains a mystery and misery, explained the VC.

The time has come to stand up, wake up and claim one's right as advocated by thirty years young Vivekananda on December 27, 1892, told the VC.

Earlier Ms Manju Gupta Assistant Professor of Education welcomed and introduced the speaker of the day. Dr. Ankush Sharma HOD education and other faculty members were present on the occasion.

Here is my ABC poem on Neo-Vedanta philosophy that Swami Vivekananda propagated Neo-Vedanta:

A: Attaining inner purity for self-actualization

B: Being and becoming united for realism

C: Controlling mind and developing concentrate with faith in one's divinity

D: Doing good to others by seeing same soul in them and not treating despondency cannot be religion

E: Education has to be positive for both self-knowledge and worldly knowledge
