The tenure of the members shall be for two years. The quorum for the meetings shall be 2 out of 3 members (including Chairman).

3.1 Role and Responsibilities of Departmental Academic Integrity Committee (DAIC)

- (i) “The DAIC shall follow the principles of natural justice while deciding about the allegation of plagiarism against the student, faculty, researcher, and staff.
- (ii) The DAIC shall have the power to assess the level of plagiarism and recommend penalty (ies) accordingly.
- (iii) The DAIC after investigation shall submit its report with the recommendation on penalties to be imposed to the UAIC within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of complaint/initiation of the proceedings”.

4. Definition:

‘Plagiarism’ is the unacknowledged use of another person’s work as one’s own work. Plagiarism involves copying of Phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs, or longer extracts from published or unpublished work including from internet without acknowledgment of the source.

4.1 Methods of Plagiarism:

- (a) Quoting directly another person’s language, data, illustration, tables, etc. without due acknowledgment of the source.
- (b) Copying a section of book/article/report/monograph/dissertation/thesis without proper citation.
- (c) Buying, stealing or borrowing assignments, experiments/results.
- (d) Paragraphing the work of others without due acknowledgments.
- (e) Using ideas of someone else without crediting the originator.
- (f) Copying, cutting and pasting from the internet or online source and submitting as one’s own work without giving proper reference/citation.
- (e) And any other means which have not been listed here.

4.2 Self-Plagiarism

Copying/reproducing, in part or whole one's own published work without giving proper reference to that work.

4.3 Golden Rule to avoid the Plagiarism:

- (a) Always give the due credit to the original author (s) and give the proper citation and proper reference.
- (b) Place the sentence in inverted commas, if you quote text verbatim.

The research work carried out by the student, faculty, researcher, and staff shall be based on original ideas, which shall include abstract, summary, hypothesis, observations, results, conclusions and recommendations only and shall not have any similarities. It shall exclude a common knowledge or coincidental terms, up to fourteen (14) consecutive words.

5. Levels of Plagiarism

Plagiarism would be quantified into following levels in ascending order of severity for the purpose of its definition:

- i. Zero Level: Similarities up to 10% - Minor similarities, no penalty
- ii. Low Level: Similarities above 10% to 40%
- iii. Mid Level: Similarities above 40% to 60%
- iv. High Level: Similarities above 60%

6. Procedure for Submission of Documents for Plagiarism check

University already has a subscription of a Plagiarism Check Software. It would be available in the university's Central Library. Any student, faculty, researcher and staff who wish to submit his/her final thesis, dissertation, research paper or any other such documents to the university or to some other agency, shall be required to submit the soft copy of the thesis/ dissertation/ manuscript to the librarian for the plagiarism check prior to final submission. The librarian shall supply the soft copy of the report generated on the plagiarism checking software and soft copy of the document to the concerned Head of the Department and to the concerned candidate.

7. Procedure for the reconciliation of plagiarism reports:

- 7.1 If a case of plagiarism is found in the report generated on the plagiarism checking software supplied by the librarian then Head of the Department shall call a meeting of DAIC to consider the report and shall summoned the candidate to hear the candidate's view. The DAIC shall follow the principles of natural justice while deciding about the allegation of plagiarism against the student, faculty, researcher, and staff. On hearing the candidate, the DAIC shall submit its recommendations keeping in view of the following guidelines:

The DAIC shall exclude the following at the time of performing the check:
